IT'S REGIONAL BUREAU CHIEF COLE. OUT

OK, Gordon.

COLE
OREGON. A YOUNG GIRL HAS BEEN MURDERED. SEVENTEEN YEARS OLD.
NAMED TERESA BANKS.

DESMOND
(Very loud)
Okay, Gordon!!!!

Desmond electronically lowers the aerial adjusting the volume.

Desmond and Stanley shake.

STANLEY

It's a pleasure. I've heard a lot about you.

COLE

SAM'S THE MAN WHO CRACKED THE WHITEMAN CASE.

DESMOND

Congratulations. I heard about that.

COLE

(plowing ahead)
YOUR SURPRISE, CHET. HER NAME IS LIL.

LIL walks to them from another room. She goes into a contorted dance.

Things we notice.

-- While she is doing this, she blinks both eyes.

What did it mean?

DESMOND
Code. If you work with Gordon you learn

In slow motion.

ON LIL'S SOUR FACE

DESMOND
Lil was wearing a sour face.

STANLEY
What do you mean?

DESMOND
Her face had a sour look.... that means we're going to have trouble with the local authorities. They are not going to be receptive to the FBI.

ON LIL BLINKING BOTH EYES

DESMOND (CONTINUED)
Both eyes blinking means there is going to be trouble higher up... the eyes of the local authority. A sheriff and a deputy.
That would be my guess. Two of the local law enforcers are going to be a problem.

ON LIL PUTTING ONE HAND IN HER POCKET AND ONE IN A FIST

DESMOND (CONTINUED)
If you noticed she had one hand in her pocket which means they are hiding something, and the other hand made a fist which means they are going to be

Lil was walking in place which means there's going to be a lot of legwork involved.

WE SEE COLE PUTTING HIS FINGERS IN FRONT OF HIS FACE AND SAYING LIL IS HIS SISTER'S GIRL.

Cole said Lil was "his mother's sister's girl." What is missing in that sentence? The Uncle.

STANLEY

Oh, the uncle is missing.

DESMOND

Not Cole's Uncle but probably the sheriff's uncle is in federal prison.

STANLEY

So the sheriff has got an Uncle who's committed a serious crime.

ON LIL'S RED WIG

DESMOND

Right, which is probably why Lil was wearing a red wig meaning we are headed into a dangerous situation. Let me ask you something, Stanley, did you notice anything about the dress?

STANLEY

The dress she was wearing had been altered to fit her. I noticed a different colored thread where the dress had been taken in. It wasn't her dress or she must have lost some weight.

DESMOND

Gordon said you were good. The tailored dress is our code for drugs. Did you notice what was pinned to it?

STANLEY

A blue rose.

DESMOND

Very good, but I can't tell you about that.

Stanley rides along quietly for awhile.

STANLEY

I see. He does talk loud.

DESMOND

Gordon would not have sent us to Deer Meadow without thinking it was a high priority situation.

STANLEY

It must be a high priority situation.

Agent Desmond and Stanley walk into a very small reception area. At the counter Desmond shows his badge to CLIFF HOWARD, the deputy.

DESMOND

Good afternoon, Federal Bureau of Investigation, Special Agent Chet Desmond. I'd like to see Sheriff Cable.

Cliff just smiles for a long minute.

CLIFF

Why don't you folks have a seat. Make yourself at home. It's gonna be awhile.

Desmond stays standing and Stanley sits. After another long moment, Cliff joins the SECRETARY in a conspiratorial giggle over the long wait they are planning to give the FBI. In the middle of a giggle Cliff smiles up.

Cliff has a good laugh over this and leans again over the secretary pretending to look at some paper work. They both laugh.

DESMOND

Okay, that's it. I've had enough of the waiting room now.

CLIFF

(still smiling)

Oh.

Desmond walks towards the door that obviously must go to Sheriff Cable's office.

Cliff blocks his way with his arm across the doorway, daring him to do something. While they stare eye to eye, Desmond's hand goes up slowly towards Cliff's face in a slow mesmerizing way. Cliff tries to knock Chet's hand away. Chet counters by grabbing Cliff's nose and pinches a nerve to its side injecting Cliff with a great amount of pain.

CLIFF (CONTINUED)

AAAHHHHHHHHH...

Desmond spins the deputy 180 degrees placing himself on the inside of the office and then still pressing the nerve guides Cliff down into a chair.

While the Deputy's eyes tear copiously Desmond turns to the secretary.

DESMOND

You can start that FRESH pot of coffee right now.

Desmond stalks to Sheriff Cable's office. Stanley remains behind continuing to observe every detail.

I'm here to investigate the murder of Teresa Banks.

CABLE

Well, little fella, we don't need any outside help here. I don't like you people sniffin' around my neck of the woods. In fact, when the state boys called me about a "J. Edgar" coming up I think I said, "So what?"

DESMOND

Your behavior is not funny and is wasting the time of the Federal Government.

CABLE

You're lucky I am not wasting you.

DESMOND

Well, little fella, let me put it this way. The operative word here would be "Federal." With or without the semantics of all this, I am now ordering you to release all pertinent information concerning Teresa Banks, both while living and deceased.

Cable retrieves a box with the paper work and some personal effects. He throws it to Desmond.

CABLE

A basic kill. Banks was a drifter and nobody knew her. My boys have been all over this. It's a dead end.

DESMOND

That's why we're here, Sheriff Cable. Where's the body?

CABLE

Out back in our morgue.

As Desmond turns to leave he notices on the wall a framed Newspaper clipping with picture.

The caption reads:

"CABLE BENDS STEEL"

The newspaper shows a picture of Cable in a He-Man pose bending a steel BAR into a U shape. He turns to leave and Stanley seems to have appeared right on time. Desmond moves down the hall and Stanley follows.

16. EXT. SHERIFF'S STATION - DAY

As Desmond and Stanley walk to the adjoining morgue they see a pile of steel BARS similar to the one they saw Cable bending in the picture.

AT THE MORGUE DOOR

Stanley moves up to Desmond and speaks confidentially.

STANLEY
You know, Agent Desmond, I figure this whole office, furniture included, is worth 27,000 dollars.

Desmond doesn't know what to say to him. They enter the morgue.

17. INT. TINY MORGUE - DAY

Teresa's body is on the platform in the middle of the room. Stanley hangs his recorder on the hooks at the end of the autopsy table and puts on rubber gloves. Desmond opens Teresa Banks file.

DESMOND
(reading)
Teresa Banks lived at the Canyon Trailer Park for a month. We'll check that. And worked as a waitress at Hap's Truck Stop. Worked the Night Shift. Good place for dinner when we're thru here, Sam.

DESMOND

That's good.

STANLEY

Yes, it is good.

(looks around)

What do you think is in these other drawers?

DESMOND

I don't know, Sam.

STANLEY

Maybe, later we could take a look.

DESMOND

Sure, but let's finish up with this first.

Getting to work, Stanley's face goes right over Teresa's.

STANLEY

(into his recorder)

Crushed skull. Probable cause repeated blows to the back of the head with an obtuse angled blunt object. Subject looks to be between 16 and 18 years of age.

DESMOND

Cole said she was 17.

Stanley's eyes drift to Teresa's left hand.

Desmond notices the mark on her hand as well.

Stanley brings over his "Whiteman" instrument. Works the left hand under

STANLEY

Agent Desmond, would you hold the

He gets whatever it is with a long set of tweezers.

STANLEY
Nicotine is a drug. Caffeine is a drug.

IRENE
Who's Shorty? Those drugs are legal.

DESMOND
He's with me.

Anything you would like to tell us about

Irene comes up to them with her purse in her hand. She is going off duty.

IRENE

You know, I never told anybody, but once for about three days, just before her time, Teresa's arm went completely dead.

DESMOND

What do you mean?

IRENE

DESMOND

I think that's a good idea.

22. EXT. HAP'S DINER - NEAR DAWN

As Desmond and Stanley head towards their car.

DESMOND

I think we should see the sun rise at the Canyon Trailer Park.

STANLEY

Are you speaking to me in a code?

DESMOND

No, Sam, I'm speaking plainly and I mean just exactly what I say.

STANLEY

In that case, we should go to the Canyon Trailer Park.

Irene walks past them and towards the parking lot.

STANLEY AND DESMOND

Thanks, Irene. Good...

Good morning.

Thank god it is morning.

They both fumble for their badges as they hear the manager coming closer to the door. They meet the manager, CARL RODD.

CARL
God damn, this better be important.

He stops in the middle of this when he sees the badges.

DESMOND
Federal Bureau of Investigation, Special Agent Chet Desmond and Agent Sam Stanley. Sorry to disturb you, but we would like to see Teresa Banks' trailer, please.

CARL
More popular than Uncle's Day at a whorehouse.

GOD DAMN, THAT MORNING SUN IS BRIGHT! BLUE BRIGHT.

Carl steps thru the little picket fence's gate and leads them towards Teresa's Trailer.

He swings open the door.

DESMOND

My guess is there isn't enough detail in the photo to get an idea of the design on the ring, but we should do a blowup of this anyway.

(squinting at the picture)
May I see the magnifying glass, Agent Desmond?

(takes a look, then looks at Desmond)

There doesn't seem to be enough detail in the photo to ascertain the design on the ring.

Carl leans in from outside.

DESMOND

Did you know Teresa Banks?

She just nods in the negative and leans back out. Behind her is Deputy Cliff, who looks into the trailer.

CLIFF

Hey, how's J. Edgar doin'?

Bet you appreciate them bustin' your mornin' in half, eh, Carl? Bet they woke

CARL

They're only doing their job.

Chet steps towards Cliff who loses his balance and has to step off the trailer steps.

28. EXT. CANYON TRAILER COURT - SAME

Desmond stands in the doorway of the trailer and watches Cliff get into his car and drive to work.

Stepping away from the trailer Desmond spots something underneath. He bends down and retrieves a Titleist Golf Ball.

DESMOND

Is there a golf course around here?

CARL

Not a lot around here, no. Got some clubs, but not very many fellas with balls.

Desmond drops the ball in a plastic bag and gives it to Stanley who puts it in his kit. Desmond turns to Carl.

DESMOND

Thanks for your help, Carl. Sorry we woke you up.

CARL

That's alright. I was having a bad dream. I was dreamin' about a joke with no punchline.

Desmond and Stanley nod to Carl and walk to their car.

The FBI MOBILE CRIME VAN sits outside as Desmond and Stanley pull up.

30. INT. WAITING ROOM, SHERIFF CABLE'S OFFICE - DAY

Cable and Cliff meet Desmond and Stanley as they come in the door. The CRIME VAN DRIVER sits nearby. The secretary is behind her desk.

What the hell is that thing doing out there? You're not taking that body anywhere.

DESMOND

We're taking the body back to Portland and there's not a thing you can do about it.

CABLE

Maybe not a thing, but maybe two things.

DESMOND

Teresa Banks had a ring. Any idea what happened to it?

CABLE

We got a phone, here, that's got a little ring.

DESMOND

(turning to Stanley)
Sam, get the body and put it in the van.
(to Cable)
Sheriff Cable, where were you the night Teresa Banks was murdered?

CABLE

(flexing the muscles in his arm)
My alibi is as strong as these bands of steel.

He reaches out and stops Stanley from going out to get the body. Cable smiles menacingly at Desmond.

CABLE (CONTINUED)

Cliff told me you asked him the same thing. Why don't we step around back and we'll have our final "discussion" out doors.

Cable exits followed by Cliff and the giggling secretary.

STANLEY

(coming close to Desmond)
When he says, "Discussion," how do you take that, Agent Desmond?

DESMOND

I don't take it, Sam. I give it.

31. EXT. BEHIND THE SHERIFF'S STATION - DAY

Desmond, Cliff, Stanley, Cable, the secretary and the FBI van driver all have stepped outside by the pile of iron bars.

CABLE

Now, J. Edgar, I'm going to take off my badge, here. Do you mind?
(takes his badge off)
The only way you're going to get that body is over mine.

He picks up a steel bar and bends it ala the picture in his office.

CLIFF

(to Desmond)
You try that you little monkey.

DESMOND

I think I'll take off my badge as well.

Desmond takes his coat and badge off. Cable takes his shirt off and Desmond follows. Cable is bare-chested and Desmond is in FBI issue underwear.

Desmond goes to pick up an iron bar and Cable hits him with a sucker punch. As Desmond bends away from this Cable rushes at him. Desmond stops him with a few well placed punches to his face. Cable falls down and Desmond stands over him. Chet picks up the steel bar and bends it. He then tosses the bar away.

Cable stands up and rushes at Desmond who flips and flops him around. Cable tries one more grand roundhouse punch which Desmond expertly Desmond blasts him in the jaw and Cable goes over - lights out, all systems down.

The no longer giggling secretary and Cliff stand and stare. Desmond looks at them.

DESMOND
Who's next?

After a moment of unbearable humiliation they shuffle away.

DISSOLVE TO:

32. EXT. SHERIFF'S STATION - AFTERNOON

Stanley and the driver finish loading the body into the van. Desmond and Stanley talk.

DESMOND
Take the van back to Portland, Stanley.
I'm going to take one more look at the trailer park.

They walk towards the van until Stanley stops.

STANLEY
(confidentially)
One thing that has been troubling me.
That lamp at the diner. Do you think they were working on it for esthetic reasons or was their work due to faulty wiring?

DESMOND
Faulty wiring.

STANLEY
Esthetics are subjective, aren't they,
Agent Desmond?
(extends his hand)
I'm Sam Stanley. If you ever need me.

DESMOND
Thanks, Sam, for the good work. You have a good eye for detail.

32. CONTINUED:

STANLEY

We do notice things, don't we, Agent Desmond? Are you going back to the trailer park for the Blue Rose?

Desmond smiles at Stanley as they shake.

DESMOND'S POV

As he enters the van Desmond can barely make out what Stanley says as he points to the driver.

STANLEY

83,000 dollars.

33. EXT. THE TRAILER COURT - DAY

Desmond is standing in front of Teresa's trailer with Carl Rodd.

CARL

(motioning behind and to the right of Teresa's trailer)
And that's Deputy Cliff's trailer over there. The red one.

CHET

Right.

CARL

I'll be in my trailer if you need me.

Carl walks away towards his trailer. Desmond walks over and around Cliff's red trailer. He gets a strange feeling. He looks past Teresa's trailer to the edge of the trailer park, where he sees a HAND appear in the window of a trailer. Then the hand disappears.

Desmond walks to that trailer. He knocks on the door but no one answers. He looks under the trailer and sees a mound of dirt with a small indentation at the top. In the indentation is Teresa Banks' ring. As he reaches out and touches it, he disappears.

34. INT. GORDON COLE'S OFFICE, PHILADELPHIA - DAY

Cole and ALBERT ROSENFELD talk.

COLE

EVERY SYLLABLE OF EVERY WORD IS THE SOUND OF TWO HANDS CLAPPING. IS THAT WHAT YOU SAID, ALBERT?

34. CONTINUED:

ALBERT

Six to eight hands clapping. I was referring to the possibility of a little silence.

The phone rings and Cole answers it.

35. INT. PHILADELPHIA FBI OFFICES

AGENT DALE COOPER, in the doorway across the hall, talks to DIANE in the next room. While he talks he does some isometrics against the door frame.

COOPER

I know you haven't changed your hair and I've seen that beautiful dress before, but I must say, Diane, you look sensational today.

Diane says something else that we cannot hear.

COOPER

(enjoying this)

No, I am not trying to buy time. It's Thursday and I know you have changed something in the room. ... and this time you've done very well...

(stalling)

And I am going to tell you exactly what it is... in a moment... you have moved....

(snaps his fingers)

Got it! It's the clock, you've moved it 12 inches to the left.

(a laugh)

Another triumph for the dashing Agent Cooper. And you, Diane, now have to clean the coffee cup, get fresh ground coffee from Sally and make a damn great pot of coffee.

Cooper with a triumphant smile walks over to join Cole and Albert. But Cole's stern look takes his smile away.

COOPER

What is it, Gordon?

COLE

COOP, AGENT CHET DESMOND HAS DISAPPEARED. GONE LIKE THE WIND IN DEER MEADOW.

36. INT. SAM STANLEY'S APARTMENT, SPOKANE - DAY

All around the walls of Stanley's apartment are work benches with adding machinery sitting on top of them. In the middle of the room is a portable, plastic pool, with milky white water and crystallized salt formations clinging to the sides like quartz rocks. From one odd looking piece of machinery there are wires which extend into the pool.

Cooper's eyes go to the pool and back to Stanley as Sam talks about Desmond.

STANLEY

Agent Chet said he wanted to check the trailer court one more time. He had me drive the van with the body back here. Which we did. It was 105 miles.

COOPER

Anything else?

STANLEY

Did Gordon show you a woman named Lil?

COOPER

I'm up to speed, Stanley.

STANLEY

Agent Chet wouldn't tell me what the Blue Rose meant.

COOPER

And neither will I.

STANLEY

(understanding)

Oh, alright.

(reflecting)

You know, I liked Agent Desmond. He had his own M.O.

Stanley turns to one of his work tables and shows Cooper the Whiteman machine.

STANLEY

I cracked the Whiteman case with this.

COOPER

(trying to stop him)

Stanley, I heard all about it.

STANLEY

Cooper looks under the microscope to see the letter they found on Teresa.

COOPER
And no one found the ring?

STANLEY
No, sir, we did not.

Cooper straightens up from the microscope. Stanley extends his hand.

STANLEY
I'm Sam Stanley, if you ever need me.

37. EXT. CANYON TRAILER COURT - DAY

Carl Rodd shows Cooper to Teresa's trailer.

CARL
GOD. I'm beginning to lose faith in the United States Government and that includes the telephone system. Don't you folks talk to one another. That's her trailer there and I haven't touched a god damn thing. Agent Chet Desmond come by a second time and asked to see Deputy Cliff Howard's trailer
(gestures to the red trailer)
... which I showed him. I went back to my trailer...
(gestures back to his)
After that I never saw him again.

COOPER
Thank you, Carl.

Cooper starts walking in the opposite direction from Cliff's trailer picking up on the same odd vibe that struck Desmond.

CARL
(turning back)
That's not the way to Cliff's trailer. I told you.

37. CONTINUED:

COOPER

I am not going to Cliff's trailer.

CARL

Well, where are you going?

COOPER

I am going over here.

CARL

(coming along with him)

God damn, you people are confusing.

Cooper reaches a pack of dirt which is now creased with tire tracks.

COOPER

What was here, Mr. Rodd?

CARL

A trailer was here. What the hell do you think?

COOPER

Can you tell me who's trailer it was... and who stayed in the trailer?

CARL

An old woman and her grandson.

COOPER

Can you tell me what their names were?

CARL

Chalfont. Weird. Chalfont was the name of the folks that rented the space before they did. Two Chalfonts.

Cooper kneels to examine the tracks left by the exited trailer. As he kneels and inspects the tracks he is overcome by the presence of SOMETHING.

Cooper struggles to his feet and looks around. Under a tree and close to the tracks is a car.

COOPER

Is that Agent Desmond's vehicle?

CARL

Yep, it sure is.

Cooper walks to it.

38. EXT. WIND RIVER, NEAR DEER MEADOW - AFTERNOON

Cooper stares into the stream.

COOPER

(dictating into his recorder)
Diane, it's 4:20 in the afternoon. I am standing here at Wind River where they found the body of Teresa Banks. Diane, this case has got a strange feeling for me. Not only has Agent Chester Desmond disappeared but this is one of Cole's Blue Rose cases. The clues that were found by Agent Desmond and Agent Stanley have led to dead ends. The letter below the fingernail gives me the feeling that the killer will strike again. But like the song says, " ... who knows where or when."

He runs back out the door into the hallway. Behind him at the end of the hall a door opens and Phillip Jeffries who moments ago was in Buenos Aires enters the hallway headed towards Cooper, but Cooper doesn't see him because he is staring intently into the camera as he has done twice before.

50. INT. SURVEILLANCE ROOM - SAME

Cooper races into the room and stares into the monitor.

51. ON THE MONITOR

This time Cooper is amazed to see himself staring into the camera, and behind him is Phillip Jeffries coming towards him and the camera. On the screen Jeffries walks past Cooper.

COOPER

Cooper runs into Gordon's office.

52. INT. GORDON'S OFFICE

As Cooper gets to Gordon's office, Albert and Cole are standing there staring bug eyed at Phillip Jeffries.

PHILLIP! COLE

Albert stands up.

ALBERT

Jeffries moves into the room. Cooper steps into the office.

JEFFRIES

I want to tell you everything, but I don't have a lot to go on. But I'll tell you one thing: Judy is positive about this.

ALBERT

How interesting. I thought we were going to keep Judy out of this.

Jeffries stumbles to a chair.

JEFFRIES

Albert is about to say something, but is stopped by Cole's gentle pressure on his arm.

JEFFRIES

They sat quietly for hours.

Jeffries is suddenly standing in the second story hallway of the Buenos Aires Palm Deluxe Hotel. The wall behind him is seared black and smoking. A terrified MAID is whimpering and scampering away from Jeffries trying to stave away an epileptic fit. She is looking at him like he is the devil personified.

The bellhop had run further away, but has turned back to see Jeffries reappear. He is afraid to come any closer.

DONNA

Are you going to tell him about that "someone else?"

LAURA

I don't know what to do.

JAMES

It does matter. We're in love.

LAURA

James, you don't know what you are talking about. Quit trying to hold on so tight. I'm gone... long gone like a turkey through the corn.

Gobble, gobble, gobble.

Maybe I better start our homework.

LAURA

Okay, I suppose I should go home.

DONNA

Call me.

LAURA

Sure. What do you want me to call you?

DONNA

Call me anything just don't call me late for dinner.

They laugh.

68. EXT. PALMER HOUSE - DAY

Laura coming home from Donna's.

69. INT. PALMER HOUSE

Laura comes in the front door. No one seems to be home.

LAURA

Mom... Mom?

No answer - she heads up to her room.

70. INT. PALMER HOUSE, STAIRS AND HALL

Laura moves up to her bedroom.

71. INT. LAURA'S ROOM - DAY

Laura comes into her room and drops her books on her bed. She goes to the window and opens it - takes a package of cigarettes out, pulls one out and lights it.

She goes to her "public" diary which she keeps on her desk. Opens it to page one takes out a packet full of cocaine. Like a pro she takes out her "cocaine gadget" from her purse and takes a snort. Then another. Big sigh of relief.

Now she moves to her "private" diary behind her dresser - gets a pen, ready to write and starts to freak out. Pages are missing. First, she discovers one, then more.

Laura panics. Dropping her cocaine gadget back into her purse and taking her private diary, she sprints from the room.

72. INT. PALMER HOUSE, ENTRANCE WAY - DAY

Laura runs down the steps nearly colliding with her mom, SARAH PALMER, coming home with a load of groceries. A cigarette in her mouth.

SARAH

Laura, honey...

(smoke going into her tearing eyes)

Cigarette... cigarette...

Laura takes it out of her mouth.

LAURA

Can I take the car?

SARAH

Sure honey, what's the hurry?

LAURA

I forgot my books at school.

Laura runs from the house.

SARAH

Laura.

LAURA

What?

Laura looks back to see her mom dangling the car keys in front of her. Laura comes back to get the keys still holding the burning cigarette. Sarah sternly takes the cigarette from Laura's hand. As they make the exchange.

74. EXT. HAROLD'S SMITH'S APARTMENT - DAY

Laura skids up outside the apartment. Then backs the car up to a darker, more enclosed area amongst some trees. Cautiously, she gets out of the car and then hurries to Harold's door.

AT THE DOOR

Laura frantically knocks on the door. HAROLD SMITH answers.

HAROLD
Laura?

75. INT. HAROLD SMITH'S APARTMENT - DAY

Laura rushes past him to the sofa, opening the book for him to see.

LAURA
My secret diary. There are pages missing.

HAROLD
Who would do that?

LAURA
Bob.

HAROLD
But Bob isn't real.

LAURA
The pages are gone. That's real.

HAROLD Maybe.

LAURA
Bob is real. He's been "having" me since I was 12.

Stunned, Harold doesn't know what to do.

He wants to be me... or he will kill me.

HAROLD
No... No...

LAURA
(strangely)
Oh, yes... yes...

Laura starts towards him frightening Harold.

HAROLD
What? Please.

She allows the feeling of Bob to come over her and she begins to scream.
Harold steps back, but Laura grabs him. To his face with a horrifying expression on hers.

LAURA
FIRE WALK WITH ME.

She buries herself on his shoulder.

LAURA
(whispers)
The trees... the trees...

They break.

LAURA (Continued)
You have to hide the diary, Harold. You made me write it all down. He doesn't know about you. You'll be safe.

She stares at Harold. Her eyes widen, terrified with suspicion.

LAURA
You're not Bob are you, Harold?. If you are, you can kill me right now. Kill me right now, if you are.

HAROLD
Laura, no, I'm not. I'm not Bob.

HAROLD

But you're strong Laura... so much stronger than I... How can I help you? I can't. I can't even go outside.

Laura reaches up and tenderly touches his cheek.

HAROLD (CONTINUED)

What about James? Can't James help you? You two are so in love.

LAURA

(flat)

He's in love with a girl who's dead.

(handing him the diary)

It is dangerous for you to have it. I'm sorry.

HAROLD

(thinking only of her)

I'm so sorry, Laura.

She pulls him to her and kisses him passionately.

LAURA

I don't know when I can come back.
Maybe never.

Laura slowly goes out the door. Harold can only watch.

76. EXT. HAROLD SMITH'S APARTMENT - DAY

Laura goes out to the car.

77. INT/EXT. BUICK ROADMASTER - DAY

Laura starts the car and takes a snort of cocaine.

Laura pulls out onto the highway. We stay with her watching her face - struggling with the prospects of the terrifying future.

78. INT. PALMER DINING ROOM - NIGHT

Laura rushes in to find her mom setting the table. Sarah stops and stares at Laura.

SARAH

You lied to me about those school books.
I found them upstairs on your bed.

LAURA

(suspicion and paranoia)
What were you doing in my room?

SARAH

I was looking for that blue sweater that you borrowed which I found balled up in the bottom of your closet. Now why did you lie to me? Where did you go?

LAURA

I had to see Bobby. I know you really don't like Bobby, but there was a problem and I didn't think you would understand.

SARAH

Oh, honey, you don't have to lie to me.
Ever. You can tell me anything. I'll understand.

LAURA

I'm sorry, Mom.

SARAH

Now hurry, dinner's almost ready. Your father says he's starving.

79. INT. PALMER DINING ROOM - NIGHT

Laura is already at the table. Sarah puts the rest of the dinner on the table and sits down just as LELAND PALMER enters from the kitchen. He is

LELAND

Translation is: How are you? My name is Leland Palmer.

Laura and Sarah stare at him.

LELAND
The Norwegians are coming next week and I want you to learn to say what I just learned in Norwegian. So you can talk to them. I want you to learn to say,
"Hello, my name is Leland Palmer."

LAURA
But my name isn't Leland Palmer.

SARAH
Neither is mine. And can't we talk about something serious for a change.

LELAND
This is serious. Mr. Benjamin Horne's got a delegation of Norwegians coming in next week and I want both of you to learn to introduce yourself. Sarah, you first.

Leland repeats his phrase for Sarah's benefit.

LELAND
Hyggelig a mote dem. Jeg Heter Leland
Palmer.

Sarah stumbles through it.

SARAH
Hyggelig a mote dem. Jeg Heter Sarah

Leland repeats his phrase back to her. Extends his hand in a friendly handshake.

LELAND
Good. We'll practice some more. Laura,

80. INT. LAURA'S ROOM - LATE NIGHT

The clock reads: 11:30. Laura's hands open the window and release the screen. Laura silently sneaks out the window and down the side of her house.

81. EXT. SIDE OF THE HIGHWAY - LATER

A big semi comes to a stop at a wide spot in the road. Laura climbs into the truck.

82. INT. TRUCK - SAME

The TRUCKER smiles. Eager.

TRUCKER

Friend of Leo's, right? Partyland?

Laura begins to unbutton her blouse. Turns and sneaks a toot of cocaine.

LAURA (Continued)

You shift that one. This one's mine.

She climbs over on top of him.

83. EXT. THE TRUCK - SAME

The stack blows. The truck rolls away onto the road. We watch it as it moans into the distance - the sound slowly diminishing and fading.

Natures' nighttime sounds take over. Finally, we hear the hooting of an owl.

85. INT. OFFICE - DAY

Albert and Cooper.

ALBERT

Cooper, the ooze of mumbo jumbo is rising up above our heads. Do you honestly think Cole's practice of word association works?

COOPER

The very fact that we are talking about word association means we are in a space that was opened up by our practice of word association. The world is a hologram, Albert.

ALBERT

Yes, it's a great big psychedelic circus ride, isn't it, Cooper?

COOPER

Albert.

ALBERT

You said, "Teresa Banks," so you think something is going on somewhere in the world right now that is connected with her murder?

COOPER

Yes. Either right now or right when I thought it. The name and memory of Teresa Banks is haunting me. Lately I have been filled with a knowingness that the murderer will strike again. Because it is only a feeling, I am powerless to stop it. And another thing, Albert, when the next murder happens, you will help me solve it.

COOPER

She's in high school. She's sexually active. She's on drugs. She's crying out for some help.

ALBERT

You're describing half the high school girls in America.

(off Cooper's look)

What is she doing right now?

COOPER

(closing his eyes to see a mental picture)

She is preparing a great abundance of food

Albert lets go a small laugh of disbelief and shakes his head in exasperation.

86. EXT. DOUBLE R DINER - AFTERNOON

87. INT. DOUBLE R DINER - AFTERNOON

Laura comes out of the kitchen stacking some of her "Meals on Wheels" on the counter.

On screen it reads:

"FRIDAY - SIX DAYS BEFORE"

NORMA JENNINGS and SHELLEY JOHNSON watch from the cash register. Shelly is ringing someone out, handing back their change.

NORMA

Shelly, would you give Laura a quick hand with the "Meals on Wheels?"

SHELLY

I'm kind of busy, Norma.

NORMA

You're not busy, sweetheart, now go.

With a little squeeze of the hand and a gentle shove, Norma moves Shelly towards Laura who is at the end of the counter.

The door opens to the Diner and ED and NADINE HURLEY come in. Nadine stops when she sees Norma.

NADINE

I changed my mind, I don't want any coffee, Eddie.

Nadine goes out. As she walks past Ed he looks at Norma and makes a "What can I do" gesture.

ED

Sorry, Norma.

Ed goes out.

SHELLY AND LAURA

Shelly approaches Laura sheepishly.

SHELLY

Can I give you a hand getting the dinners together?

LAURA

That's all right, Shelly. I know you have better things to do.

SHELLY

(disregarding the jab)
Norma asked me to give you a hand.

LAURA

Okay. You can help me carry them to the car.

Shelly gathers up a pile of the dinners and takes them out to the "Meals on Wheels" car.

88. EXT. THE DOUBLE R - DAY

Shelly loads her stuff in the back. She returns to the diner and Laura follows doing the same.

As Laura places her dinners in the back something catches her eye and she turns.

LAURA'S POV

Mrs. Tremond and her grandson. are standing in the parking lot staring at Laura. Mrs. Tremond waves to Laura to come over. When Laura comes to them Mrs. Tremond holds out a framed picture.

TREMOND

This would look nice on your wall.

She hands Laura the picture. It is a picture of a room with flowered wallpaper and a dark doorway in its corner. Laura's study of it is interrupted by the grandson.

GRANDSON

He's looking for a book with pages torn out. He's walking towards the hiding place. He's moving under the fan now.

ANOTHER ANGLE

Shelly comes out of the Diner with another load of meals. Laura turns back to her and then back to the Tremonds, who are walking away from her and are farther away than they realistically could be. Laura comes to Shelly in a panic.

LAURA

Shelly, you really can help me. I can't do the "Meals on Wheels" today. I just can't.

SHELLY

Okay.

Laura runs off. Shelly puts her load into the car as she watches Laura.

89. INT. DOUBLE R - DAY

Shelly goes to Norma.

Norma just turns away and picks up some dirty dishes .

NORMA
Come back as soon as you can.

SHELLY
If Leo comes here, he won't believe that
I am out doing the "Meals on Wheels."

NORMA
Don't worry, Shelly, I'll handle Leo.

Shelly leaves the Diner.

ON NORMA

In the empty diner Norma walks over and sits in a booth. She studies the empty diner. After a while the cook, TOAD, calls from the kitchen. A distant forlorn call.

TOAD
Kind of quiet.

CLOSEUP: ON NORMA

She starts to cry.

90. EXT. PALMER HOUSE - DAY

Laura runs home. Holding the picture from Mrs. Tremond throughout.

LAURA

LAURA'S POV

She stops and stares. Her house suddenly looks very frightening to her.
She slowly crosses her front yard and enters the house.

Laura comes in the front door still holding the picture. She crosses thru the dining room.

92. INT. PALMER HOUSE, STAIRS - DAY

Laura moves ever so slowly up the stairs - the fan still and silent above her.

At the top of the stairs, she stops and stares at her bedroom door. Her whole body is shaking. Her hand goes out in front of her. She touches her bedroom door and inches it open.

93. INT. LAURA'S BEDROOM - DAY

The opening of the door reveals more and more of her room. Suddenly it reveals Bob standing in her room at her dresser. He has pulled the dresser away from the wall looking for something.

ON BOB

He is frozen. Smiling at her.

ON THE SCENE

With a scream, Laura bolts from her room.

94. EXT. PALMER HOUSE - SAME

Laura races out of the house still holding Tremond's picture.

95. EXT. PALMER'S NEIGHBOR'S HOUSE

Laura runs across two yards to a large tree and falls to her knees, crying. She looks up and sees her father come out the front door of her house. She watches him cross to his car and drive away.

LAURA

(frantic whisper)

What? It can't be... It can't be him... no... no...

Laura is coming apart, sobbing. Behind her, on the sidewalk, a NEIGHBOR has noticed her.

WOMAN

Laura...

A closer look reveals how upset Laura is.

WOMAN

What... Laura are you all right?

Laura turns away so the woman can't see her crying. The woman takes a couple of steps off the sidewalk onto the grass.

LAURA
(trying to hold it together)
I... lost my necklace.... it must have fallen.

Laura mimes that she has found her gold half-heart necklace. She pretends to be clasping her gold half heart necklace which was already around her neck.

LAURA (clumsily)
Oh, here it is.

Woman moves back to the sidewalk.

WOMAN
Well, I'm glad you found it, darling.

Slowly, Laura stands and moves away - leaving Mrs. Tremond's picture on the grass under the tree.

Laura dives toward Donna and into a hug.

DONNA
What is it Laura? What's wrong?

LAURA
I just want a friend. Just one friend for just one minute...

DONNA
Laura, how about one friend for the rest of your whole life?

LAURA
Yes, that's what I want. Thanks D.

DONNA
Okay, L.
(looks into Laura's eyes, a step toward confronting something unspoken)
I am your friend... always. But sometimes... lately... I feel that you don't like being around me because I am so uptight.
(off Laura's look)
No, I am uptight. I hate it.. I don't want to be this way, but Laura I don't ... I mean... I'm your friend no matter what way you are.

LAURA
You know, even when I think about your face I get happier.

They go in and sit down on the couch.

DONNA
Do you want to talk?

LAURA
No, I want to smoke.

She digs for a cigarette in her purse.

DONNA

I'm in a mess today, too.

(takes a breath)

I'm thinking about doing it with Mike.
What do you think?

LAURA

(still looking for a cigarette)

Donna, you are such a crack up. You don't even like Mike. Is this what you are going to do to show me you are not uptight.

DONNA

This is about sex, not like.

(yells to the kitchen)

Mom, Laura's here and I think I will have one of those huckleberry muffins.

(to Laura)

You want a muffin?

LAURA

If I can smoke it.

DONNA

You want a muffin?

LAURA

Donna, you are a muffin.

They hear DOC HAYWARD in the kitchen. He walks in with a magician's handkerchief. With a flourish he tries to pull something out of it. Instead he stands there empty handed.

DOC

The red rose. Where is the red rose?

(frustrated)

You know the light at Sparkwood and 21? It worked right there. I just did it right there.

Laura finds a cigarette finally and lights it.

DOC

smoking)

Why is it that you can't smoke at your smoking in my home and I let you smoke

EILEEN
These muffins each have at least seven

While eating Doc takes out a piece of paper and stares blankly at it. The girls exchange glances about what Dad is doing as they chew on the Donna peeks over his shoulder.

Donna leads Laura to the door. There is something wrong and Donna is beginning to feel it. Donna tries to cheer her up.

DONNA

LAURA

Laura leaves. As Donna closes the door, Laura calls back to her.

LAURA
No, you're right. I am the muffin.

Look at this finger here.

He is looking at THE FINGER.

SARAH

Laura didn't wash her hands before

And look at this.

Did Bobby give you that or is there someone new?

SARAH

Leland leave her alone.. She doesn't like that. Stop it.

LELAND

How do you know what she doesn't like?

A beat then a return to what is normal.

SARAH

She turns to her right to see who it is, then turning back to her left she discovers ANNIE BLACKBURN lying in bed with her. Annie has blood around her mouth. She tries to raise herself and strains to speak.

ANNIE

My name is Annie. I've been with Laura and Dale. The good Dale is in the lodge and he can't leave. Write it in your diary.

ON LAURA'S DOOR

Her mother calls her name. The sound is distant and mournful.

ON LAURA

Laura looks towards her door then turns back to Annie but she is gone. Filled with fear she looks down and in her hand is Teresa Banks' ring. SHE SCREAMS. Again, her attention is drawn to her door and her mother's distant call. Still holding the ring she gets out of bed and goes to her door and slowly opens it.

It is dark on the other side of the door.

AT THE DOORWAY OF LAURA'S BEDROOM

In the doorway Laura gets a strange feeling in back of her and turns to look at Mrs. Tremond's picture. There in the picture is Laura (herself) in the doorway looking back into the darkened rooms where Mrs. Tremond and her grandson were.

LEO

Someone who knows how to clean knows where the object was before she started cleaning and then that object goes back to its exact same spot. Shelly, I know where everything in this house is. Sometimes on the road I mentally go through this whole house and picture where every item is.

Shelly, I am not fooling around anymore.
The first thing you've got to WORK on is

He answers the phone.

LEO

Buck does an Indian whoop in Laura's face. Laura freezes in horror.

The BARTENDER presses a release underneath the counter that allows Laura to take her three friends thru a door over which a sign hangs announcing in red neon letters:

"PARTYLAND"

135. INT. PARTYLAND

The group enters a large room with the filthiest wall to wall carpet imaginable. In the back corner is a small stage. On it a three piece HELL-METAL BAND is building up toward oblivion. The LEAD SINGER is dressed in a buffalo skin complete with at least half the buffalo head and horns. He wears spray painted, day glow orange cowboy boots.

Some HALF DRESSED GIRLS and COWBOYS are dancing to the band. In darkened corners away from the stage other groups are racing the band to oblivion.

Laura leans over to Donna noticing her shocked look.

LAURA

Don't expect a turkey dog in here.

Jacques Renault comes up to the group.

JACQUES

Hey, slow pokes, guess what? There's no tomorrow.

He grabs Laura up and gives her a big, sloppy wet kiss.

JACQUES

Baby, you know why? Cause it'll never get here.

JACQUES
(slurred)
I am as blank as a fart.

Laura winks at Buck as he SECRETLY drops a red depth charge into Donna's beer.

LAURA
Hey, Donna, chug-a-lug.

As the cowboys gather around and begin to chant, both Laura and Donna chug down their drinks. They finish and Laura smiles and pushes Donna out onto the dance floor.

They start to dance expertly and smile at each other. Soon Buck and Tommy cut in separating the two.

Buck dances Laura over to ANOTHER of his buddies. The two of them start to unbutton Laura's blouse as they dance.

The hell-metal band kicks into high gear. In the pulsating red and black light Donna sees Laura now topless dancing and kissing with Buck and his friend. Donna stops. Jacques sweeps in.

JACQUES
Oh, Laura's friend. I am "The Great

Ed backs off and Nadine dives in slicing.

JOSIE

That would be wonderful, but it's only been a year since Andrew died.

TRUMAN

What are you afraid of? What people think?

JOSIE

I don't want to offend the customs of your country.

TRUMAN

Believe me, Josie, you would not offend the customs of this country. For instance, I don't eat fish eyes.

JOSIE

Fish eyes?

TRUMAN

Even if it offended someone, I wouldn't eat a fish eye.

(smiling)

Why wouldn't you eat a fish eye, Harry?

TRUMAN

I saw a guy eat a fish eye once in Seattle. He was digging through his food with his chopsticks for about five minutes till he found the fish eye and he dropped it into his throat. I guess it must have gotten stuck in his uvula because right away he started to have trouble. His throat began to flutter there like there was a wind blowing. And he couldn't swallow and they rushed to him and loosened his collar and they were asking him if he was alright and he started to turn blue and his eyes started to roll back into his head and he still couldn't get the fish eye out and they tried to do a Heimlich maneuver. I went over to him as they were meat just to the side of the insides. We

TRUMAN (CONTINUED)

CLOSEUP: LAURA

She hears James' bike coming in the distance

LAURA
(frantically to herself)
Go inside... go inside.

James' bike sounds closer and closer. Leland turns, opens the front door

Everything, but everything.

Oh, Laura.

LAURA
You want to see....

JAMES
See what?

LAURA
(disgusted)
Right. Open your eyes, James. You don't know me. Even Donna doesn't know me.
Your Laura disappeared... It's just me now.

James grabs her trying to control her. She twists out of his arms.

LAURA (CONTINUED)
How 'bout this, James?

She lifts her hand and gives him the finger. James ignores the finger and kisses her, but she's gone ice cold.

LAURA (CONTINUED)
I think you want to take me home now,
James.

She leads him back to the bike. He won't start it.
